

The Mission

The Mission of Kansas City Women in Film & Television is to:

empower, promote and mentor

WOMEN in the film, entertainment, and media industries specifically in the Greater Kansas City area.

Founded in 1973 in Los Angeles, WIF currently has over 17 chapters nationwide and actively supports women in the entertainment industry internationally in four key ways:

1. Assisting independent filmmakers who have demonstrated advanced and innovative skills.
2. Funding programs which provide scholarships, mentoring programs and internships.
3. Contributing financially and creatively to the production of PSAs which spotlight issues important to women.
4. Creating events, seminars, workshops, screenings, and community outreach programs which are educational and enlightening.

Membership Benefits:

- Networking opportunities with other industry professionals and related organizations on a local, regional and national level.
- Invitations to feature film screenings and theatrical releases.
- Reduced admission to events, programs, and special events.
